- (a) yours;

- (b) your spouse's or civil partner's;
- (c) somebody with whom you are living as husband and wife or as if you are civil partners; and you are aware, in the case of paragraphs (b) and (c) that that other person has the interest.

[Note 2: the regulations currently in force are attached but do not form part of the Constitution determined by the Authority, as they may be amended by the Government at any time. These regulations are clearly defined in the Register of Interest Forms that every Member must sign]

Declaring at and participation in meetings

- 4.2 If you are present at any meeting of the Authority, and you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest in any matter to be considered or being considered, and the interest is not a 'sensitive interest' (as defined in 4.18) at the meeting:
 - 4.2.1 you must disclose the interest to the meeting whether or not it has been registered;
 - 4.2.2 unless a dispensation has been given, you may not participate in any discussion of the matter at the meeting;
 - 4.2.3 unless a dispensation has been given, you may not participate in any vote taken on the matter at the meeting.

[Note: In addition you are required to leave the room where the meeting is held while any discussion or voting takes place.]

- 4.5 Where an executive member may discharge functions alone and becomes aware of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest in a matter being dealt with or to be dealt with by him/her, the executive member must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest and must not take any steps or further steps in the matter.

B. Personal Interests

Definition

- 4.6 You have a personal interest in any business of the Authority where either:
 - 4.6.1 it relates to or is likely to affect:

- 4.6.1.1 any body of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management and to which you are appointed or nominated by the Authority;
- 4.6.1.2 any body:
 - (i) exercising functions of a public nature;
 - (ii) directed to charitable purposes; or
 - (iii) one of whose principal purposes includes the influence of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union); of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management.
- 4.6.1.3 the interests of any person from whom you have received a gift or hospitality with an estimated value of at least £50 within the last 12 months.

or

- 4.6.2 a decision in relation to that business might reasonably be regarded as affecting your wellbeing or financial position or the wellbeing or financial position of a relevant person to a greater extent than the majority of other council tax payers, ratepayers, or inhabitants of the electoral division or ward, as the case may be, affected by the decision.
- 4.7 For the purposes of paragraph 4.6, a ‘relevant person’ is:
- 1.1 4.7.1 a member of your family (parents, children, siblings, aunts, uncles, grandparents) or any person with whom you have a close association; or
 - 4.7.2 any person or body who employs or has appointed such persons, any firm in which they are a partner, or any company of which they are directors; or
 - 4.7.3 any person or body in whom such persons have a beneficial interest and a class of securities exceeding the nominal value of £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that body; or
 - 4.7.4 any body of a type described in sub-paragraph 4.6.1.1 or 4.6.1.2.

Declaring at and participation in meetings

- 4.8 Subject to paragraph 4.10 below, where you have a Personal Interest in any business of the Authority and where you are aware or ought reasonably to be aware of the existence of the Personal Interest and you attend a meeting of the Authority where such business is considered, you must disclose to that meeting the existence and nature of that interest at the commencement of the meeting and prior to any discussion of the relevant item, or as soon as the interest becomes apparent to you.
- 4.9 Where you have a Personal Interest you may remain in the meeting, speak and vote on the matter unless to do so would compromise your impartiality obligations or any other obligations set out in this Code.
- 4.10 Where you have a Personal Interest, but, by virtue of paragraph 4.17, sensitive information relating to it is not registered in the Authority’s Register of Members Interests, you must indicate to the meeting that you have a Personal Interest, but need not disclose the sensitive information to the meeting.

C. Personal Interests which might lead to bias

Definition

- 4.11 In addition to the requirements in relation to Disclosable Pecuniary Interests referred to in Section A of Part 4 of this Code, you have a Personal Interest which might lead to bias in any business of the Authority where:
- 4.11.1 you have a 'Personal Interest' as defined in paragraph 4.6 and 4.7 above; and
 - 4.11.2 that 'Personal Interest' is one which a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts, would reasonably regard as so significant that it is likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest.
- 4.12 The provisions of paragraph 4.11 shall be applied in such a manner as to recognise that this Code should not obstruct a members' service on more than one local authority. For the avoidance of doubt, participation in discussion and decision making at one local authority will not by itself normally prevent you from taking part in discussion and decision making on the same matter at another local authority. This is on the basis that a reasonable member of the public will see no objection in principle to such service or regard it as prejudicing a member's judgement of the public interest and will only regard a matter as giving rise to a Personal Interest which might lead to bias in exceptional circumstances.

Declaring at and participation in meetings

- 4.13 If you are present at any meeting of the Authority, and you have a Personal Interest which might lead to bias in any matter to be considered or being considered, and the interest is not a 'sensitive interest', subject to paragraphs 4.14 and 4.15 below, at the meeting:
- 4.13.1 you must disclose the interest to the meeting (whether or not it is registered);
 - 4.13.2 unless a dispensation has been given, you may not participate in any discussion of the matter at the meeting;
 - 4.13.3 unless a dispensation has been given, you may not participate in any vote taken on the matter at the meeting.
- 4.14 Where you have a Personal Interest which might lead to bias in any business of your authority, you may attend a meeting but only for the purpose of making representations, answering questions or giving evidence relating to the business, provided that the public are also allowed to attend the meeting for the same purpose, whether under a statutory right or otherwise, and you must leave the room where the meeting is held immediately after making representations, answering questions or giving evidence.
- 4.15 Subject to you disclosing the interest at the meeting, you may attend a meeting and vote on a matter where you have a Personal Interest which might lead to bias, if the matter relates to:
- 4.15.1 housing, where you are a tenant of the Authority provided that those functions do not relate particularly to your tenancy or lease;

- 4.15.2 school meals or school transport and travelling expenses, where you are a parent or guardian of a child in full time education, or are a parent governor of a school, unless it relates particularly to the school which the child attends;
- 4.15.3 an allowance, payment or indemnity given to members;
- 4.15.4 any ceremonial honour given to members; or
- 4.15.5 setting council tax or precept under the Local Government Finance Act 1992.

D. Registration of interests

- 4.16 Subject to paragraph 4.18 (Sensitive Interests), you must within 28 days of:
- (a) the adoption of this Code; or
 - (b) your election or appointment to office as a member (where that is later);
notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of :
 - (i) any Disclosable Pecuniary Interest, as defined in paragraph 4.1 above; and
 - (ii) details of your Personal Interests where they fall within the category mentioned in paragraph 4.6.1 above.
- 4.17 Subject to paragraph 4.18 (Sensitive Interests), you must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or Personal Interest as referred to in paragraph 4.6.1, or any change to any such interest, notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of the details of that new interest or change.

E. Sensitive Interests

- 4.18 Where you consider that disclosure of the details of an interest could lead to you, or a person connected with you, being the subject of violence or intimidation, and the Monitoring Officer agrees, if the interest is entered on the Register, copies of the Register that are made available for inspection and any published version of the Register will exclude details of the interest but may state that you have an interest, the details of which are withheld.

F. Dispensations

- 4.19 To enable you to participate and vote on a matter in which you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or a Personal Interest that might lead to bias, the Monitoring Officer may grant you a dispensation in accordance with rules and procedures established by the Authority.

(Note: Members' attention is drawn to the relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012. ("The Regulations"))

The Regulations specify the pecuniary interests which members and co-opted members are required to include in the Register of Interests maintained by the Council. Failure to declare a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest and to take part in any discussion in. or vote on any matter in which the member has a pecuniary interest is a criminal offence, which is punishable by a fine of up to £5,000 and disqualification.
